This is my final call to register for Reunion!

I don't blame you if you're tired of hearing me plug Reunion. I've been talking up th event with emails, postcards, social media posts, and phone trees for months. I've t you all about the schedule and entertainment and details. This isn't just a big party me. I believe in this event, and what happens when you bring Antiochians together.

Especially in this political climate, radical, creative leadership is more urgent than ever. Antioch College stands as a living experiment in courage, conscience, and community. Let's convene and look toward the future.

Reunion 2025: Antioch & the Arts will take place July 24–27 in Yellow Springs, an it's more than just a gathering. It’s a celebration of the Antioch spirit—of imaginati activism, and the lifelong pursuit of justice. It’s a space for reconnection, renewal, a recommitment to the values that brought us to Antioch in the first place.

Why come back now?

Because our world needs the kind of people Antioch cultivates.
Because our campus needs the energy and insight of alumni who believe in possibil
Because your presence matters—not just to old friends, but to the future of the Coll itself!
Join fellow changemakers, educators, artists, dreamers, and doers for a weekend tha equal parts reunion and revolution.

🗓️ Date: July 24–27, 2025
📍 Location: Antioch College, Yellow Springs, OH
🎟️ Register at: antiochcollege.edu/reunion

Let's gather. Let's create. Let's recommit. Because Antioch isn't just a place we wen it's a future we're still building.
