

Calling all Photographers

Glen Helen is looking for great images for our 2009 Wall Calendar!

Selected pictures must correspond to a logical month, so this year we'd like you think about how well your photographs convey seasons in the Glen— an iced-over spring, a flower or animal only found at a certain time of year, a muggy day spent wandering through the woods. What is beautiful and special about Glen Helen during summer, spring, fall, and winter? We hope you've kept your camera with you all year 'round...

Proceeds from the calendar sales contribute to the continued protection and restoration of Glen Helen.

The Details:

- There is no entry fee.
- Photographers chosen for the calendar are credited and receive one free 2009 calendar.
- A photographer can submit up to four of their own original images, with horizontal color shots tending to fit the flow of the calendar the best.
- We require a hard copy print at least 4 X 6 inches for the selection process--your name and the title of the picture must be on the back of the photograph.
- Hard copies of photographs submitted for review will not be returned to the entrant.
- If your photograph is selected for the calendar, we will need access to a high-resolution electronic copy of your photograph (at least 5 megabytes), or a slide or negative. Slides and negatives requested at this stage will be returned to you.
- A completed entry form (see next page) must be included with all entries.

The submission deadline is Saturday, May 31st. We will contact you about the status of your entry in the weeks following the contest deadline.

Photographic hard copies and entry forms should be sent or dropped off to:

Glen Helen Building,
Attention: Calendar Photo Search Committee
405 Corry St
Yellow Springs, OH 45387.
