

What the Antioch Community is Saying

“The Renewal Commission has ... formulated a revolutionary plan ... to create a better space to live, work, and study, now and for the future. This is the opportunity we need to create the Antioch we are all proud of -- proud to be a part of, happy to serve, happy to call home -- and most of all, to be a supportive, healthy, strong, vibrant, vital, energetic, ground-breaking, world-embracing community.”

--Kristen Muir (05), Antioch College Community Manager and Steve Corfman (04), Budget Manager

[The Plan to Renew Antioch College] is focused in vision and informed by a good deal of detail work. It is a scheme that renders a Renewed Antioch, a New Antioch that will serve students in new and better ways ... informed by heightened interconnection, integration and a new integrity.”

-- Rick Jurasek, Antioch College Acting President

“[The Renewal Plan is] well-matched to Antioch’s goals and values. In fact, what we read, saw and heard ...helped us return with renewed enthusiasm to exploring a capital contribution to Antioch. With all of us, and with so many of our friends and family, touched by Antioch, our commitment to the College and its values could not be deeper. So we are excited to have found a way to be part of Antioch’s renewal.”

-- Michael Spock (##) and Judith Wood Spock (##)

“The plan creates an Antioch College that is visionary, viable and sustainable.”

-- Dan Kaplan (76), Chair, Antioch University Board of Trustees