A. Discussion of Inspection Policy

- a. Currently, it reads: Antioch College reserves the right to require employees while on College property, or on client property, to agree to the inspection of their persons, personal possessions and property, personal vehicles parked on College or client property, and work areas. This includes lockers, vehicles, desks, cabinets, work stations, packages, handbags, briefcases, and other personal possessions or places of concealment, as well as personal mail sent to the College or to its clients. Employees are expected to cooperate in the conduct of any search or inspection. Full policy: <https://drive.google.com/file/d/14mh4S3kgc9EAF-bnz28LHDI8eXYE9Kwg/view>
- b. Comment from Gariot related to this policy: Whatever its original intent, this policy, on its face, reads as utterly invasive and problematic. I don't believe that any member of the college community agrees to "inspection of their persons, personal possessions and property, personal vehicles parked" by virtue of being on college property. And given the problematic nature of "stop-and-frisk" laws in places like New York, perhaps our college policies shouldn't include this kind of language.
