

1,000+
volunteer hours on the farm since 2011

4,600
lbs. of waste was collected in North Hall
Kitchen in Fall 2013

15%
of Antioch students have been employed on the farm since 2011

7,000
lbs. of produce was grown
on the farm in 2014

Since 2011, Antioch students have made 688
experiential learning visits
to the farm

28%
of local food served through Antioch Kitchens was grown on the farm in 2013

The average meal
travels

1,500
miles

Food from the Antioch Farm
travels less than

1,500
feet

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING • COMMUNITY PARTICIPATION STUDENT WORK OPPORTUNITIES • CAMPUS CONNECTIVITY

The Antioch College Farm is an educational and ecological resource immediately adjacent to the main campus on which Antioch students and faculty explore issues centered on environmental conservation, food sustainability, and the social, moral, philosophical and economic lenses through which one can examine local “field to fork” agriculture.

ANTIOCH COLLEGE
FARM